PRESS RELEASE

DUTA staged a Flash protest to Condemns Assault on Teacher at Dr. B.R. Ambedkar College

The Delhi University Teachers' Association (DUTA) strongly condemns the assault on a teacher by office bearers of the Delhi University Students' Union (DUSU) at Dr. B.R. Ambedkar College on 16 October 2025. Such incidents are deplorable and strike at the dignity of teachers and the sanctity of the academic environment.

As a mark of protest, DUTA organised a flash protest on 17 October 2025 at 11 a.m. outside the Vice-Chancellor's Office (Gate No. 1), demanding justice and assurance of teachers' safety and respect across the University.

Following the protest, a DUTA delegation met the Vice-Chancellor, the Proctor, and the Dean of Colleges and demanded strict action against those involved.

The university administration informed that two committees—one at the college level through the Governing Body and another at the university level under the Proctor's Office—have been constituted to inquire into the incident. Both committees will examine the matter and are expected to submit their reports within two weeks.
