Sub: Concern Regarding Conduct of UG & PG Examinations by the University on Sundays

Dear Prof Singh,

DUTA would like to bring to your kind notice that, according to the University UG & PG examination date sheet, papers are also scheduled on Sundays. Conducting examinations on Sundays is an additional burden on teachers and non-teaching staff who are already engaged in continuous academic and administrative responsibilities during the week. DUTA would further like to inform you that many Entrance exams are also held on Sundays during May & June every year. It also causes inconvenience to many students who may face commuting and logistical difficulties. DUTA register its strong objection to such an act by the University.

To ensure a conducive and safe environment for the smooth conduct of exams, DUTA demands that the Examination Branch reconsider scheduling UG and PG Exams on Sundays and ensure that examinations are conducted within regular working days.

Regards,

(Prof V.S. Negi)
President, DUTA

Secretary, DUTA
