Sub: Condemnation of Physical Assault on Teacher by DUSU Office Bearers at B.R. Ambedkar College

Dear Prof Singh,

DUTA expresses its strongest condemnation of the shocking incident that took place on 16 October 2025, at B.R. Ambedkar College, where a teacher was physically assaulted and manhandled by members of the Delhi University Students' Union (DUSU). Such a brazen assault on teacher is a serious threat to academic freedom, institutional discipline, and the dignity of the teaching community.

It is reported to DUTA that the DUSU Joint Secretary along with several other students physically assaulted the Convenor of the College Disciplinary Committee, inside the Principal's office. Several other teachers were also manhandled during the incident.

In light of this grave incident, DUTA demands immediate and firm action from the University administration. The University cannot allow violence, intimidation, and mob behaviour to take root within its campuses. The sanctity of academic institutions and the respect due to teachers must be upheld at all costs.

We request your immediate intervention, inquiry and action in this matter.

Regards,

(Prof. V. S.Negi)
President, DUTA

Secretary, DUTA
